STANDARD FIVE

TERM-I

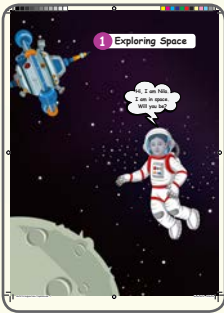

Preface

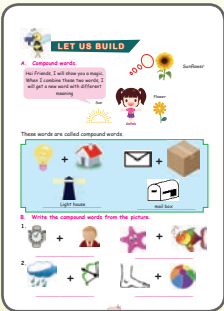

The English Language textbook has been designed to enable a fun-filled and engaging experience in learning the language. The approach allows for plenty of practice in the four language skills. It focuses on structure practice and vocabulary enrichment through a variety of language learning activities. These activities evoke interest and engaged practice in the language and thus lead to retention.

As per NCF 2005, language is learnt when it is taught with exposure in meaningful context rather than as a subject. In accordance with this, the textbook has been drafted with themes related or familiar to children. The units provide space for effective individual and pair work and thus allows the teacher to focus on time management in multi-level classrooms.

How to use the textbook?

- The first term English Book for Standard V has three units.
- Each unit is planned for a month.
- Nila introduces the theme of each unit.

- Let us speak provides opportunity for the teachers to teach the language structures through games and activities. It develops listening and speaking skills.
- Let us sing provides opportunity for the children to sing rhymes with actions and intonation. It helps children learn new vocabulary contextually.

Exploring Space

Hi, I am Nila.
I am in space.
Will you be?

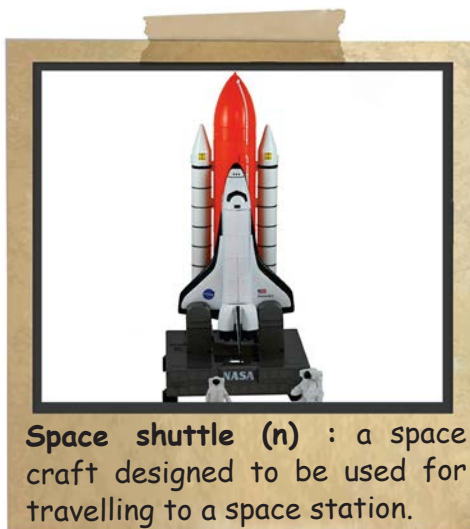

MY LITTLE Pictionary

Milky way (n) : the galaxy that contains our solar system.

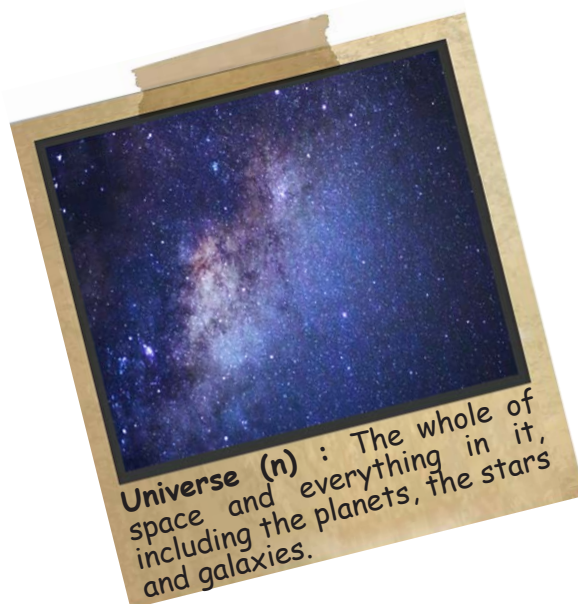

Earth (n) : the planet on which we live.

Space shuttle (n) : a space craft designed to be used for travelling to a space station.

Solar System (n) : the sun and all the planets that move around it.

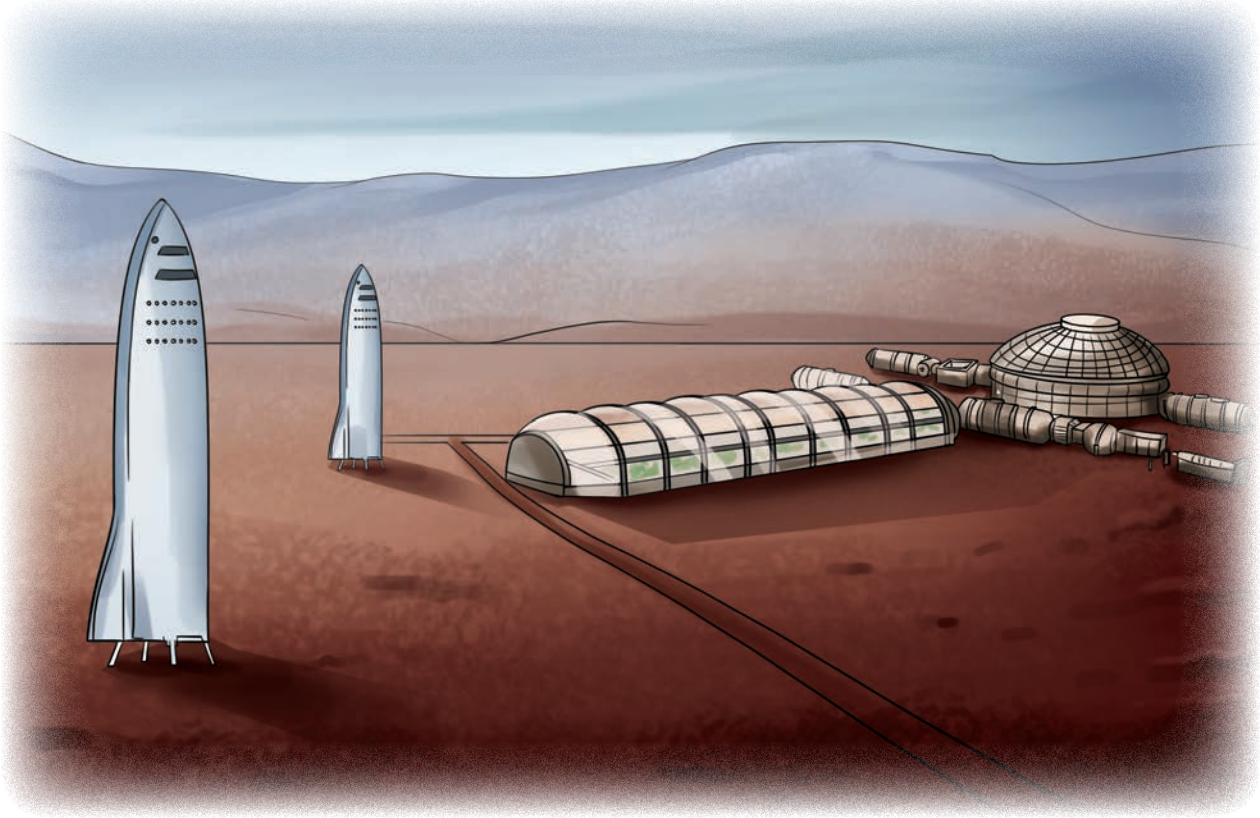

Universe (n) : The whole of space and everything in it, including the planets, the stars and galaxies.

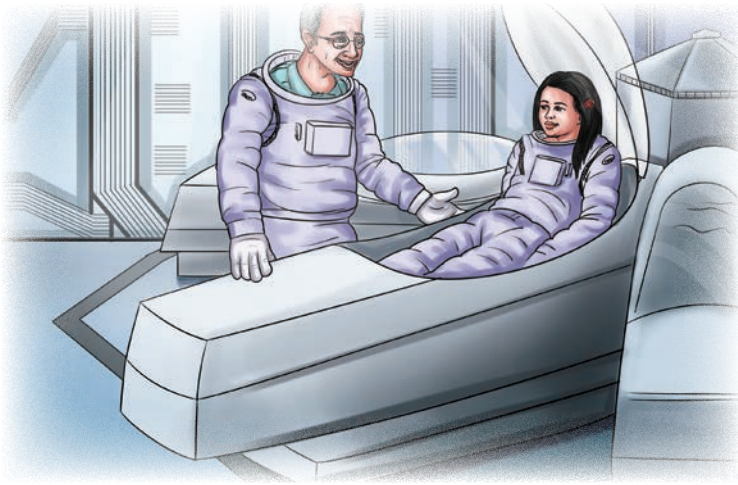

LET US LEARN

Earth, the Desolated Home

It was the year 2068, humans had destroyed the Earth, and started colonising the red planet Mars. India established three colonies; Arivumathi's family lived in one such colony. On her birthday, her grandfather travelled more than 1500 km to meet her. When he reached, he saw her sleeping in her capsule.

He said, "Wake up, Arivu." Arivumathi was surprised, "Grandpa! When did you come? I was thinking that you won't be coming for my birthday." He sighed, "Don't you know about the dust storm of Mars? Sometimes, it even lasts for a month. But this time it did not. So I am on time. It still took me three sols to reach here. Now come on, let's not waste time. We will go to harvest the vegetation hab for vegetables."

In the hab, he said, "Hmm, these carrots are not tasty anymore, like the ones I ate in my childhood." She asked, "Why do you say so, Grandpa?" Grandfather explained, "The vegetables we grow here do not taste like the ones on the Earth. I really wish you had tasted the carrots from the Earth." Arivu asked eagerly, "How did they grow the crops and vegetables on The Earth?"

Now, the grandfather was sad, like he is missing the Earth. He said, "The Earth had fertile soil, so the fruits and vegetables grown were healthy and tasty." She asked, "But, I learnt that humans used chemical fertilizers, and polluted the soil. Here, we get unpolluted food and water. Is that correct?"

Grandfather laughed, "Already, I told you. These fruits, vegetables, and water are not the same as in the Earth. They are not real." Arivu exclaimed, "Even the water?" He said, "Of course! In Mars, we get water from burning fuels. On the Earth, we used to get water from rain, it was natural, and it was free!" She said, "Grandpa, enough of your stories about the Earth. I know that life there was easy but, here survival is very difficult." He replied, "Yes my dear, adapting to Mars is difficult. Today, we are fighting for things which we got easily."

He continued, "In the Earth, you did not need a spacesuit or an oxygen cylinder. Also, the years are longer here." Arivu said, "Yes, grandpa. In Mars, 687 days make a year." He smiled, "Ha! Ha! Yes, you would be 18 years old on the Earth now."

Grandpa thought to himself, "We destroyed our home. The home that nature had offered us. Now, we are trying to make this our home."

Arivu looked at him and said, "Don't worry grandpa, the scientists are trying to Terraform the Mars." He said, "True, but nothing can be the Earth. The Earth is our home. Ah, let us leave this for now. Today we should celebrate."

What actions destroy the Earth?
How will you change it?

LET US LEARN

Trip to My Grand Parents Village

It is summer. Santhosh' vacation has started. His parents are going to Sirumalai, his parents' village. Santhosh is excited. He records an audio diary on his mother's phone. He records all his feelings during the visit. Later, he writes down in his diary what he had recorded. Let's read his diary to know his experiences during this visit.

10th April:

I am very eager to visit my grand parents' village. I will meet my grand parents and cousins. I have packed my clothes and tab for playing video games. We will be travelling in a bus. I am so excited.

11th April:

Today we are travelling. Though it is summer, the weather is pleasant in the morning. There are numerous trees with yellow flowers on both sides of the road. There is greenery all around. There are many white cranes in the lush green paddy fields. The scarecrows have managed to scare away the crows in the fields. There is no traffic, noise and air pollution in the village.

I get off the bus and run to meet my grandparents. They are delighted to see me. The house is surrounded by many big trees. There are a few jackfruit, mango, neem, banana, pomegranate and coconut trees. The trees have abundant fruits. My grandfather has plucked some ripe mangoes for me. The mangoes are so juicy and sweet.

12th April:

I have woken up early today. I am out for a walk in the morning. The cool breeze is pleasing. The coconut palms are swaying lazily. The farmers are already in their fields.

Some of them are cutting the crops and some of them are threshing the paddy. The air is filled with the sweet sound of birds singing in the trees and the bushes. The cuckoo's song is perhaps the most enchanting.

When I come home, I freshen up and eat the tastiest breakfast in my life. Later, my grandmother introduces a girl, Paavai. She goes to the village school. She lives down the street. She is very eager to show me around the village. Paavai shows me how to play with a tyre and a stick. We happily run down the lanes balancing the tyre with a small stick. We stop to talk to Paavai's friends, Amir, Peter and Umaiya.

All children here too have their summer vacation. Amir is helping his father in milking their cows. He lets me pat his black calf. Peter and Umaiya are sitting with their grandmother breaking groundnut pods and piling them neatly. Later they will take the nuts to the village market to sell them. I help them for some time.

13th April:

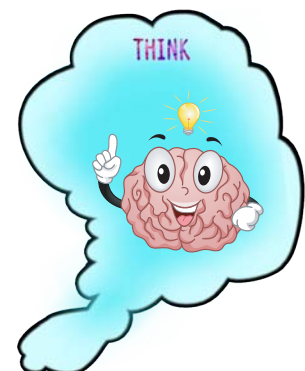

Paavai takes me to the village pond. There are many children splashing around in the pond. Some boys are climbing to the top of the tall tamarind tree. Girls are playing hide and seek near the big banyan tree.

My mother and my aunties take me to the river for a refreshing bath. I play for some time in the cool water but I cannot swim. So, I sit on a big smooth rock and watch my friends swim like experts. They talk and laugh a lot as they wash their clothes and dry their hair in the Sun. The river is so clean that I can see the pebbles in the riverbed and colourful fish swim by. I love the scenery.

14th April:

We are back to our home in the city. The trip to our grand parents' home was so enjoyable. Those two days flew by so fast. I realised that during this stay, I had neither watched television nor played video games. I am eagerly looking forward to our next visit.

Is TV and video game the only way to pass time? Can we do something else?

In the village of Manipuram, there lived a wealthy farmer. He had three daughters. All his daughters were married and living their life happily. The farmer was getting old. He wanted to distribute his wealth to his daughters. But he wanted to know what responsibility he could give to each of his daughters. After one year the daughters came back to their father's house. The farmer welcomed all of them.

First he called the elder daughter and asked about what she had done with the grains given to her. She replied, "Father, I fed those grains to flocks of birds that I saw on my way back to home."

Then the father called the second daughter and asked the same. She replied, "Father, I thought those grains were sacred. So I mixed those with other grains kept for community food service. So that everyone could have it. After this, the third daughter came. The farmer asked her about the grains. She said, "Father, I don't have those grains with me now. I need two bullocks and men to get the grains." Father was confused and asked her, "Why do you need bullocks and men to bring the grains here?" The daughter smiled and replied "I sowed those grains and now it has grown as crops. So, I need a bullock cart and men to harvest and bring back the grains." Father was happy to know that she used the grains wisely. Father found her apt and gave her the responsibility of the fields. He distributed his other wealth equally among the other two daughters.

The Guardians of the Nation

Anand and Yazhini came home from school. After washing their face, hands and legs, they sat down next to their father. Their father was watching the news on the television. There were two bowls of chickpea sundal. They ate and watched a ceremony where people were paying respect to a helmet on top of a gun. "Dad, what is this place? What are they doing?" asked Anandhan. Dad replied, "This is Amar Jawan Jyoti, a memorial for the soldiers who died for our country. Every year, 7th December is observed as Armed Forces Flag Day. On that day, we remember the sacrifices of our soldiers for guarding our nation. It is a great honour to serve the nation by joining the army."

Why do the soldiers (people) die?
When will it be stopped?

Yazhini proudly declared, "When I grow up, I will join the army and serve the nation." Anandhan said, "I will become a doctor, and treat the people." Yazhini asked, "Why don't you join the army and serve the nation like me?" Father intervened her and said, "Joining the army is not the only way to serve the nation. Each one of us can serve the nation in our own way." Yazhini asked, "Really dad? How can we serve the nation?" Father said, "Serving in the army is a grace, but not everyone gets a chance to serve. But, each of us has a role in our society and, by doing that role we are serving our nation."

Father continued, "I will tell you the story of Karmugilan. He was a doctor, who died, serving the people. He was young and talented. He went to the USA for studying. His parents were very proud of him. They thought that he would live in the USA and continue his practice. But to everyone's surprise, he came back to India and started treating poor people free of cost."

Yazhini asked, "Were his parents not angry with him?" Dad said, "They were angry. But, they knew he was happy."

One day, dengue broke out in the nearby villages. He left to those villages to treat the people. He saved the lives of many. He was soon well known in the village, and people poured in to get treated. But, one day he got infected by the disease and was taken to the city hospital. He was in critical condition. His parents were upset and worried. He told his parents that he had done his duty to the country and, was happy. In a couple of days, he died. In his memory, the people of the village have built a hospital and treat people at free of cost."

"That's really great, dad. He is a real hero.", said Yazhini.

Father replied, "Each one of us should love and respect our country. We should treat everyone around us with love and respect. That's the real service to the nation."

The Legend of Jaswantgarh

Jaswant Singh Rawat was an Indian soldier, the place Jaswantgarh in Arunachal Pradesh gets its name from him. The legendary story, "The battle of Nauranang", handed down through the ages of Nauranang is inspiring and records the valour and patriotism of Jaswant.

There was a war between India and China in the year 1962. In the final part of the war, Nauranang was the last stand of the Indian army against the Chinese army. The battle started on 17th November 1962 and continued for seventy-two hours. At 5.00am, in the Eastern Himalayas, the Chinese army attacked the lonely Indian post in Nauranang. Knowing that the Chinese army was stronger, the Indian soldiers on the post were ordered to retreat and regroup. But, Jaswant did not leave his post and decided to continue the fight to hold the Chinese until the reinforcements arrive.

Two village girls named Sela and Nura helped Jaswant. They set up weapons at separate points. Jaswant taught the girls to fire guns. All three kept shooting on the Chinese army. Jaswant was running to different gun points and kept shooting. His intention was to give the Chinese army a perception that they are facing a huge Indian battalion. He did this for three continuous days. Jaswant and the girls had killed three hundred Chinese soldiers. The Chinese army decided to cut the food supply to the post.

The Chinese soldiers caught the man, who brought food for the three. In the Chinese interrogation, the man told the truth that a single soldier was guarding the post. A single soldier and two village girls had fooled the Chinese. They were shocked and furious. They surrounded Jaswant Singh and launched a final attack.

Jaswant shot himself as Chinese were going to capture him. A grenade blast killed Sela. Nura, the tribal girl, was captured alive.

After the war, the commander of the Chinese army returned the brass bust of Jaswant. A war memorial with the brass bust was made to remember him and his service to the nation. All army personnel who pass through this memorial pay their respect to him.

The Indian Army still treats him as a serving officer and awards him promotions. India awarded him the Mahavir Chakra. Jaswant may have died in battle that day, but he still lives in the memory of people in Jaswantgarh and the Indian army..
